

A Child of God's Declaration

I am Yours; my God, my Lord and my King!

I present myself to my God, to my fellow man and to the world. I am no longer held captive, lost and afraid, unsure who I am. Father God has chosen me to be His child and He provides for all of my needs. Jesus set me free! He forgives me for all of my sins because of His great love for me. My God never holds them against me or brings them up again. The Holy Spirit lives within me and gives me access to divine knowledge, strength and self-discipline. My God guides me and encourages me on the path of my life's journey. He loves and accepts me just as I am. My God believes in me!

The Holy Spirit changes me on the inside, one day at a time, to line my life up on the outside with God's written word. My heart is willing and my mind is open to learning your ways, my Lord. Show me how to love you, honor you and represent you with the life you have given me. Teach me, my Lord, to love myself and others the way that you love me; how to forgive and extend your mercy and grace to those around me. Form me and shape me to be the salt of the earth. Make my life a beacon of your light to the world around me. Help me to set the captives free and help the lost to find their way, my Lord.

I am following Jesus, my King and want my life to make a difference in the world I live in. I want to change the world as I extend God's kingdom by doing the good works He has prepared in advance for me to do. I want to be willing and able to surrender all of me to you, my King. Please change my heart; give me your strength and the courage to live my life your way and not my way. My transformed life is proof that Jesus is alive and in my heart. Send me to be your blessing in the world around me today. Fill me up and pour me out as a living sacrifice, I am yours; my God, my Lord and my King. Amen!

This declaration has truths about God and the point of view God's children have that are living their life in the kingdom of God today. Read this declaration out loud everyday. When you speak this you are claiming and declaring these truths and point of view to be yours. You are asking God's help to make this your perspective, your truths and the way you live your life. When this is in your heart, it will help you with the choices you make and keeping your priorities in life. It is important to remember that our part is to be willing and God's part is to change us and take us as far as we are willing to go as His child.

May the God of all creation bless you with revelation drawing you closer to Him.
